

Dr. Zakaria Ngereja - RA ARU

Dr. Zakaria Ngereja is a lecturer at Ardhi University in the Department of Geospatial Sciences and Technology. He is a registered land Surveyor and expert in geospatial technologies. He holds a PhD in Geomatics, MSc. In Geospatial Technologies; and BSc. in Land Surveying. He has over 15 years , working in the field of geospatial science, and research on Geographic Information System, Spatial Data Infrastructure; He has been involved in the resilience academy at Ardhi University by developing online eLearning modules on geospatial data management on the following mini-modules: spatial data quality, metadata, and spatial data infrastructure; geo-visualization

Mr. Massoud Hamad - RA/Geo-ICT 4e SUZA

Mr. Massoud Hamad is an Assistant Lecturer in the Department of Computer Science and IT at SUZA, He graduated from Vellore Institute of Technology (India) in Master of Science in Computer Science, He has been teaching, mentoring and assistant researcher for almost 9 years at the State University of Zanzibar and Revolutionary Government of Zanzibar, He has been participated in different projects which involve data and especially big data, data science, geospatial data analysis and development and remote sensing. He is working as Software Developer and Team leader for Digital Assets under Resilience Academy and GeoICT4e project supported by World Bank and Finish Government. I am mentor of SUZA App Club, an organization of students who wants to be software engineers and Artificial Intelligence as their carriers.